

This could give you quite a start!

£21,102 - Teacher's starting salary
(as for September 2009)

Are you in your final year at University or thinking of a career change? Have you ever thought of becoming a teacher and training locally?

The starting salary for a newly qualified teacher is currently £21,102. Furthermore, as a post graduate trainee teacher you could receive up to £9,000 tax free, while you train. Plus a "Golden Hello" if you go on to teach a shortage subject. We offer a supportive, wide-ranging, challenging and realistic course that will prepare you for a career in secondary school teaching. Applications are welcome from both new graduates and mature students. We still have vacancies in :

- Mathematics
- Science

Leading to a PGCE.

If you possess the following qualifications:

- ✓ Grade C and above in GCSE English and Mathematics and
- ✓ a relevant degree (50% of degree content must directly relate to your chosen subject)
- ✓ It is also desirable to have experience of working with young people

We also offer recruitment bursaries for trainees offering Maths, Physics or Chemistry as a specialism.

Please apply direct to the Partnership or through the GTR website: www.gtr.ac.uk, for courses commencing September 2010 - June 2011.

NTTP Senior Administrator : Lina Condon
Tel: 01604 258662 (answer machine facility) e-mail: nttp@nsb.northants.sch.uk

Office located at Northampton School for Boys, Billing Road, Northampton NN1 5RT
Website: www.nttp.org.uk

The NTTP is an Equal Opportunities provider, and regard all applications equally no matter what age, gender, disability, social class, nationality, race, colour or marital status.